This email originated from outside of Loeb's Network.

Hi Linna,

We should be able to bed this to bed by end of this year. I will seek an extension until December 31st to finalize everything. I am waiting on the client to get back to me. Brandon will let you know about the Chase issue.

Best,

Hi Richard, we'd appreciate getting this thing finalized and put to bed. It has now been almost 2 months since I sent you the draft settlement agreement, and even if Glen hasn't had a chance to review it - we haven't received any comments from you. So I assume you don't have any. If that's the case, please sign and have your client sign the attached.

If that's not the case - do you plan on seeking another extension? If so, what do you plan on informing the court as to the reasons for another extension? Since I haven't heard from you or Brandon on the Chase issue, I assume the hold has been lifted, and you have the funds to fund the settlement.

Thanks, Linna
